

SONS OF NUTWOOD AND ALCANTARA.

The Two Leading Sires of 1890.

RECORD, 2:30. FOXWOOD RECORD, 2:30.

Sired by Nutwood.....	2:18 1/2	Dam, Lady Foxie.....	2:24 1/2
Son of Belmont, 64.....	2:18 1/2	With 40 heats better than 2:30 to her credit.
Dam, Miss Russell, dam of Corn Belmont 2:21.....	2:18 1/2	Sired by Daniel Lambert, sire of—
Manit 8.....	2:18 1/2	Comet.....	2:19 1/2
Nutwood.....	2:18 1/2	Ella Doe.....	2:23 1/2
Russia.....	2:18 1/2	Jim.....	2:23 1/2
Nutwood sired—		Wild Lily.....	2:24
Argon (3 years).....	2:18 1/2	None Such.....	2:25 1/2
Dawn.....	2:18 1/2	Nancy.....	2:25 1/2
Felix.....	2:18 1/2	Jubilee Lambert.....	2:25 1/2
Glensboro Belle (3 years).....	2:18 1/2	Maggie Lambert.....	2:25 1/2
Maggie E.....	2:18 1/2	George R.....	2:24
Nutwood.....	2:18 1/2	Dickard.....	2:25 1/2
Woodmont.....	2:18 1/2	Billy D.....	2:25 1/2
Belmont Boy.....	2:18 1/2	Blanchard.....	2:25 1/2
Irma (4 years).....	2:18 1/2	John Hall.....	2:25 1/2
Manager (2 years).....	2:18 1/2	Lady Foxie.....	2:24 1/2
And 41 others in the list.		And 19 others in the list.

FOXWOOD is a very handsome horse, and his dam was a noted race mare. He is fifteen and one-half hands high and weighs one thousand pounds.

HE WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1891 AT $50.00.

14403—HALCANTARA—14403

Four years old. 15 3/4 hands high. Bay.

Sired by Alcantara.....	2:22	1st dam, Raquette.....	2:23
Son of George Wilkes.....	2:22	By English, record 2:25, sire of—
Dam, Anna, Mater, dam of five horses in the list.....	2:22	Tosa (4 years).....	2:23
Alcantara (4 years).....	2:22	Parnell (4 years).....	2:23
Alcayone.....	2:22	Roblin.....	2:23
Alcilia.....	2:22	Stonewall.....	2:24 1/2
Almatur.....	2:22 1/2	And dams of—
Arbitrator.....	2:23	Reference.....	2:18
		Belle Archer (3 years).....	2:22 1/2
		Gam Bryon (3 years).....	2:22 1/2
		Gracia B.....	2:22 1/2
		Alvan.....	2:22 1/2
		And 5 others with records better than 2:30.

HALCANTARA'S second dam, Heel-and-Toe Fanny, produced Catherine, 2:28 1/2; Jewett (trotting), 2:20; Jewett (pacing), 2:14.

If you will trace this colt's breeding you will find that he has THREE NOTED BLOOD MARES on his mother's side, viz: Alma Mater and Rode's Mare, which is a very rare thing to find in a stallion's pedigree.

HE WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1891 AT $25.00.

Mares not proving with foal can be returned free next year.

These Stallions will be at Nutwood Stock Farm (formerly Delos Jones farm) after April 1, 1891.

For further information, address,

163m Nutwood Stock Farm, Canton, N. Y.

Horse Breeders

T. H. Breeders' Association, to be held at Glens Falls, N. Y., August 11, 12, 13 and 14, should send at once for stake and premium lists, as entries close May 1. W. F. BENTLEY, Glens Falls, N. Y.

GO TO

B. F. HASKELL & CO'S.

WAGONS

HARNESSES,

If You Want Good Ones.

B. F. HASKELL & CO.

West Cornwall, Vt.

The highest honors have been awarded for these instruments. Gold Silver Bronze Medals Bay State Guitars, MANDOLIN'S and BANJOS, also Wm. D. Tilton & Haynes Excelsior Guitars. Send for Catalogue for all Musical Instruments. J. C. HAYNES & CO., Boston, Mass.

AGENTS to canvass for the sale of our Wanted Most Liberal Terms. Unequalled facilities. One of the largest, oldest-established, and best known Nurseries in the country. Address W. & T. SMITH, Geneva Nursery. Established in 1845. Geneva, N. Y.

WE WANT MEN Good pay to the right kind of men to sell our reliable Nursery Stock. NO EXPERIENCE NEEDED. Write for terms. Standard Nursery Co., Rochester, N. Y. AS AGENTS

ASTHMA CURED SCHIFFMANN'S ASTHMA CURE Instantly relieves the most violent and intractable cough. NO WAITING FOR RESULTS. Being used by thousands, its action is immediate, direct and certain, and a cure is the result in all curable cases. A single trial convinces the most skeptical. Price, 50c. and $1.00 of any drugstore, or by mail. Sample free for stamp. DR. R. SCHIFFMANN, St. Paul, Minn.

OLGA! OLGA! OLGA! A SURE REMEDY FOR ALL KINDS OF WORMS

Which infest the horse. This remedy fits a w in all horse-owners have long felt. It is recognized as one of the greatest inventions of the nineteenth century. If your horse is troubled with worms of any kind be sure and try it, for it was never known to fail. For sale by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, which is 50c. per box. Circulars sent free. Address DR. F. C. WILKINSON, Veterinary Surgeon, Claremont, N. H.

WILKENESS—LIQUOR HABIT. is all the World there is but one cure, Dr. Holmes' Golden Specific.

can be given in a cup of tea or coffee or the knowledge of the person taking (acting a speedy and permanent cure, for the patient is a moderate drinker or alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge and today believe they quit drinking of its administration. Cures guaranteed, for circular and full particulars. Ad in confidence. GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 1000 Broadway, Cincinnati, O.

County News.

BRIDPORT.

Miss Ida Brown is visiting in Rutland and Castleton.

Prosper Ellithorp has rented the H. C. Ellithorp farm.

A good number of pickerel are being taken from the lake this spring.

Byron W. Crane, who has been in poor health for some time past, is still confined to the house.

F. A. Myrick has recently bought of H. E. Wright his interest in the firm of Myrick & Wright, beef dealers.

Julia E. Wolcott, wife of Jubiel H. Wheeler, aged 50 years, died in Crown Point, April 10, of pneumonia.

C. H. Grandey has moved to the Russell Walker farm, and James Baker will carry on the farm of Ira S. Doty.

E. Ladd Miner has recently purchased the real estate belonging to the estate of his late mother, Charlotte A. Miner.

The masons and carpenters began work on Monday on the new vestry. Deacon J. T. Lamos is superintending the job.

Supervisor Hasseltine held a public examination of teachers in the village school-room on Wednesday and Thursday.

Sheriff T. C. Middlebrook of Vergennes was in town Tuesday in search of three boys who escaped from the Reform school.

A. H. Rice is at this writing very low and it is feared will not long survive, and Asa Rice, aged 93, has been confined to his bed for several weeks past.

Albert Barbour died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Alfred Smith, April 11. The funeral was attended on Monday, April 13, Rev. W. N. Bacon officiating.

John Rich, who has resided around here for several years and for two or three years with Ora Gibbs, left last week for his native home, France. He expected to sail Saturday. While here he made many friends who wish him a successful journey.

CORNWALL.

The death of Wm. M. Easton occurred Sunday morning, after a long illness.

We regret to learn that P. N. Cobb, who has been ill the past winter, is quite low.

Mrs. E. D. Pritchard has taken up her residence with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sampson.

M. S. Carr has been suffering with grip the past week and confined to the house several days. F. E. Foote is also on the sick list from tonsillitis.

The Cornwall "Y's" are to give a new but very attractive and pleasing entertainment at the town hall on Monday evening, April 20, to be followed by a sugar party. All are invited; admission, 10 cents.

The funeral of Mrs. Juliette Hawley was held from her late home last Sunday. President Brainerd conducted the services. She died in Brandon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Preston, on Friday, of pneumonia, aged 74 years.

WEST CORNWALL.

(Deferred from last week.)

Mrs. Elzbur Peck is slowly but surely improving.

Miss Lettie Wooster is at home. She has been attending school at Saxton's River.

Cora Bingham is home for her short vacation. She is one of the efficient teachers in the Middlebury Graded school.

Francis Sharkey has commenced repairs on his house. He has raised it, will enlarge the cellar and put in new wall, underpinning, etc.

School will commence Monday in district No. 5 with Hattie Hamilton as teacher. Of course the little lads and lassies are much pleased with that, as she is well liked.

Maple sugar of a nice quality is being made and the sap has run abundantly. Many families with the few trees in their yards have made syrup for many a "sweet" time.

[Latest.]

J. F. Randall is down with the "grip." Mrs. Francis Sharkey is in very poor health.

Geo. D. Barber went to Rutland on Wednesday.

The funeral of Wm. G. Easton was attended from his home on Wednesday.

Tyler Parker of Littleton staid over Sunday with his brother, H. N. Parker.

F. S. Haskell was at his home over Sunday, starting from here Monday for a western trip.

Mrs. Mary Moody is with her daughter, Mrs. Underhill, who has been sick for a long time.

The sugar season has passed. Much sugar and syrup has been made and of very excellent quality.

Mr. Dishadau has moved into H. F. Dean's tenement house and James Baldwin into the Halliday house.

The many friends of Mrs. G. W. Griswold will be pleased to learn that she is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness.

The snow is all gone and the roads are getting quite dry and smooth again. Grass is starting up and farmers are looking forward to the time when they can turn their stock out into the pastures.

—Mothers, if your boys come in lame from their games, bathe in Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

ORWELL.

Mrs. B. H. Overhiser is reported a little better.

Mrs. R. W. Parks is quite sick, also Miss Ellen Ackerman, but is reported better.

Mrs. Thomas Root is reported as no worse and some hope is entertained that she will recover.

Sugar-making to all appearance has ended and many are closing their sugar houses for the season.

The Leonard saw mill is again running and a large amount of lumber is being turned out daily.

Hon. D. W. Clark is quite sick since his return from the South and in fact has been in poor health nearly all winter.

Suckers are reported quite plentiful in East creek, and men and boys assemble on these fishing grounds every evening and carry away bushels of them.

VERGENNES.

Mrs. Robert Nichols, aged 67, died in Ferrisburgh on Friday last.

Joseph Laporte of Webster, Mass., is spending a few days with relatives in town.

W. Moore, miller at the Norton mills, has taken charge of a grist mill at Shelburn Falls.

Leslie Pullman has accepted a position as newsboy on the passenger trains through here.

Lots of maple sugar was brought into town last week, selling at about eight cents a pound.

Steamer Water Lily was launched on Wednesday last. The balance of the steam fleet will follow suit later on.

Rev. M. H. Smith of Granville lectured on temperance at School-house hall on Wednesday evening of last week.

G. H. Spragg & Co. shipped a car of calves to Boston on Friday and D. O. Noonan a car of livestock on Monday.

The funeral of Mrs. F. W. Perkins, who died the 6th, took place on Wednesday, Rev. W. P. Rulison officiating.

Senator Edmunds has presented Superintendent Andrews of the Reform school with some fine maps for use in that institution.

E. D. Chilson as carpenter and George Bora as painter have engaged for the summer at Dr. Webb's establishment at Shelburn Farms.

At C. R. Rogers' the 7th, Deputy Sheriff Middlebrook's the 10th and at Capt. Hoffnagle's the 13th baby boarders were taken in.

The Sons of Veterans are making the necessary preparations for the presentation of a military drama to the public at School-house hall on the evenings of May 4, 5 and 6.

Rev. G. H. Page of Burlington occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church on Sunday last. The former pastor, Rev. R. H. Sherman, has, with his family, moved to New Hartford, Conn.

F. D. Barton exhibits on our streets daily his two celebrated stallions, Homestead and Wilkes McGregor. H. Bruce Wright shows some fine trotting stock and seldom is much in the rear when he desires to lead.

At a meeting of the court of common council, Monday evening, S. W. Hinde was elected treasurer; Frank L. Fish, collector; M. J. Graves, chief engineer of the fire department, and several fire wardens were also elected.

After over 100 years of existence as a city, the discovery has been made that the mayor, aldermen, city clerk, city sheriff and common councilmen must be elected by ballot. This was done at the adjourned election the 9th.

One hundred and 25 per cent was voted at the adjourned election Thursday evening for city expenses for 1891. The new officials were sworn in and John E. Roberts, C. E. Parker and W. A. Sherrill elected county court grand jurymen; H. P. Fisher, J. J. Barnard, A. B. Taber, E. D. Vernal, C. T. S. Pierce, L. F. Benton, M. T. Bristol and George Kingman, petit jurymen.

Farmers have begun the business of following the plough; the roads are fast getting into traveling condition; the southern breezes of spring are once more abroad in the land, business in the manufacturing line is rushing and our merchants are fairly prosperous. All we want to get up an exciting condition of things is another horse trot, or a saddle-back railroad lecture by the man from Benson.

WEYBRIDGE.

Miss Nellie Stow is at Cornwall.

Chas. Sturtevant is putting an ell on his dwelling for summer use.

Nelson Merrill will work at Middlebury at the blacksmithing business.

Walter Sturtevant was severely sick the first part of the week, but is out again.

Miss Maude Townshend was called home on Tuesday by the severe illness of her uncle.

Mrs. J. S. Cole is quite sick with congestion of the liver and inflammation of the kidneys.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Cole are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy into the family circle.

Miss Maude Roscoe is to teach in Judge Wright's district in Waltham for a six-months' term.

L. C. Sturtevant brought seven horses from Boston last week, Thos. Dewey a pair of work horses and A. Warner a fine western horse to mate his gray.

WHITING.

Mrs. Fletcher of Hartford, Conn., a relative of Dr. W. N. Wright, has been visiting him for a few days.

Frank Daniels has one of the best maple sugar orchards in town and he has made this season a large amount of syrup of excellent quality.

R. D. Needham has associated with him in his general merchandise store W. D. Foster, under the firm name of Needham & Foster. Mr. Needham has by his industry, close attention to business and maintenance of trustworthy character built up a large and prosperous business. Mr. Foster is well known to this community, having been in Mr. Needham's employ in the year 1889. May long life and prosperity attend the new firm.

State News.

It is said that the creamery at St. Albans is the largest in the world.

L. J. LaFleur's grocery at St. Albans was damaged $2000 by fire Thursday; insurance, $1500.

The board of trade finds that 250 summer boarders can be accommodated in St. Johnsbury the coming.

E. J. Dow of East Hardwick has been held for trial by the United States court on the charge of passing counterfeit money.

Dr. E. S. Tracy of Newport, who was injured in an accident last July on the Old Colony railroad, has just received $11,500 damages.

Charles Clark, alias Charles Herrick, was arrested at North Adams Friday on a requisition from the governor of Vermont, charged with burglary and assault with intent to kill one John C. Stevens of Bennington, June 29 last.

The notorious Robert Fitton of Cavendish is again in jail, this time on a warrant issued by Judge Rowell for contempt of court in mortgaging his property while divorce proceedings instituted by his wife were pending.

Mrs. L. D. Brown of Lyndonville, in stepping from a train at White River Junction last week was thrown under the cars as the train began to back up, and had both feet crushed, one of them so badly that it had to be amputated.

Assistant Judge John Howe of Castleton has been made clerk of the Rutland county court in place of H. H. Smith, resigned, and H. L. Clark of Castleton has been appointed by Gov. Page to fill Mr. Howe's position on the bench.

Albert E. Cutting has been arrested at his mother's home in St. Albans charged with robbing French & Quimby's jewelry store at White River Junction of watches, chains and pins valued at $300. The theft was committed March 11, and part of the stolen property was found in Cutting's possession.

The Champlain Valley association will hold a two-days' trotting meeting at Howard Park, Burlington, July 3 and 4. These purses will be offered: $150 guaranteed stake for three-year-olds; $300 guaranteed stake for the 2:45 class; $200 purse open to all pacers; $200 purse for the 2:35 class, and $250 for the 2:30 class.

The jury in the stone-cutters' conspiracy case at Montpelier, after being out since 3 p. m. Wednesday, returned Friday noon, finding four of the respondents, Josiah B. Dyer, secretary of the national union, Patrick Morrison, Frank Morrill and E. H. Sherburne, members of the union, guilty of conspiracy to prevent Jacob McClure from working as a stone-cutter because he was a non-union man. The case will be taken to the supreme court and a hearing will probably be had before the full bench at the general term in October. The defense have made 30 exceptions. The jury stood from the first ballot 11 for conviction and one for acquittal.

General News.

MATTERS AT WASHINGTON.

Congressman Spinola of New York died at Washington Monday morning.

Gen. Green B. Raum, United States commissioner of pensions, is seriously ill at the Grand Pacific hotel in Chicago.

The President has appointed Enos H. Nebeker of Indiana United States treasurer, to succeed Treasurer Huston, resigned.

The funeral of the late Albert Pike, grand commander for the southern jurisdiction of the Scottish rite order of Masonry, took place in Washington Friday, and at the request of the dead man was marked by simplicity and an absence of display of any sort.

President and Mrs. Harrison, with the party who will accompany them on their trip West, left Washington at midnight Sunday night on a special train prepared for their use. The party consisted of the following persons: President and Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Dinick, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harrison, Postmaster-General Wanamaker, Secretary Rusk, Marshall D. M. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Boyd, E. F. Tibbitt, the president's stenographer, Maj. Sanger of the army and representatives of the press associations.

DOMESTIC.

It is said that the next national Republican convention will be held in April or May.

There were 3339 immigrants landed at the barge office, New York, Sunday, 600 being Italians.

A report is expected from the New Orleans grand jury this week in regard to the killing of the Italians.

Dr. Eben Tourjee, the founder of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, died on Sunday in his 57th year.

The famous stallion Prince Regent, record 2:16 1/2, died at C. J. Hamlin's Village farm near Buffalo, N. Y., Saturday night.

Count Lewenhaupt, who recently married the daughter of ex-Secretary Bayard, died suddenly of typhoid fever Monday at Wilmington, Del.

Two white men have been murdered by Indians near Blackfoot, Idaho, and the people are arming with the purpose of punishing the guilty parties.

John Carroll, a coal miner in Kansas, placed a dynamite cartridge in his mouth Sunday and lit the fuse with a match. The explosion blew off his head.

Thomas Mance's three small boys found a nearly empty glycerine can near their home, not far from Washington, Pa., Sunday. They pelted it with stones, causing an explosion which blew two of them to atoms and probably fatally hurt the other.

Col. Charles B. Stoughton, a nephew of the former United States minister to Russia, has been sentenced in New York to pay a fine of $500. He pleaded guilty of violating the federal statutes by exacting a fee of $1000 from Mrs. Zeitner for services in securing for her a pension of $2200.

A dispatch from Sorel, near Montreal, says that the residence of Major Edward Paul was burned Sunday night. The youngest daughter, six years of age, perished in the flames. Mrs. Paul and two other children were seriously burned and may succumb to their injuries.

Joseph Davis, a young tough of New York, badly abused Hugh Mooney, a boy, Sunday, because Mooney refused to buy beer for him. Then the crowd got mad, and, having procured a rope, were preparing to swing Davis up to a lamp post at the corner of Tenth avenue and Fortyninth street, when a policeman rescued and took him to jail.

James Markham, an aged farmer of Polk, O., was found dead in his house Thursday. His wife lay near him with a bullet wound in her forehead. She died soon after neighbors arrived. The story told by one of Mrs. Markham's sons would indicate that the woman was killed by her husband and that he committed suicide. Neighbors think it was a double murder.

FOREIGN.

Gen. Biber, who represented the State of Nevada at the Paris exhibition of 1889, has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment in Zurich for swindling.

Ten thousand striking weavers at Bradford, Eng., made a demonstration Monday. They refused to disperse, and military and police charged. A number on both sides were injured.

Fifty thousand francs has recently been given to the American charity fund in Paris. The management of the fund last year devoted 170,000 francs to sending penniless American citizens home.

The Madrid Gazette publishes a royal decree ordering the appropriation of 50,000 pesos for the construction of a sepulchre in the Havana cathedral, where the remains of Christopher Columbus are preserved. In order to secure the best results in the construction of this tomb, it has been thrown open to competition among Spanish artists.

STOCK NOTES.

The stallions Sprotbro Fashion and Javanais, from Dr. Webb's Shelburn Farms, have arrived in town and are attracting many visitors to the Bread Loaf Farm barns, east of the fair grounds, where they are kept.